“The Scholarship ceremony is such a wonderful experience because it allows all contributing donors the opportunity to see first-hand the community impact of their contributions to the Foundation, says Jennifer Moore Social Executive Chair and representative of Don Ross Nabb Productions.

The AJX Foundation raises money to provide community outreach through education and community related service programs for well adjusted students and activities that reside in the DFW metroplex.

The Foundation is comprised of several local Aspiring business leaders who have Joined together to support the neXt generation. Scholars are selected by the Foundation and partnered with a local business mentor who is familiar with their college goals. “It is important that students graduating high school understand that business leaders are concerned about their future and want to be for them during and after their four years of college,” says Brian Connelly, Co-Founder and Advisory Member.

Local area students are encouraged to apply to become the 2010 scholar. Students can apply by visiting at our website at www.ajxfoundation.org/scholarship-application.pdf.

The 2nd Annual Golf Classic is now accepting corporate sponsors for as little as $500. Entry fee to play in this year’s tournament are $125 per individual and $400 per team. For early registration, please visit our link www.teeboxcaddy.com/register/?T=12&C=6.

About AJX Foundation

Founded in 2007 and the brain child of Jennifer Scroggins-Jackson whose passion is to give back to the Dallas-Fort Worth communities. Co-founders are Alvin J. Jackson and Brian Connelly, the AJX Foundation is a non-profit organization whose leaders work with several community and non-profit organizations on campaigns that generate funds for scholarships and community related service programs. The Foundation’s objective is in connecting local business professionals through fellowship and networking which will, in turn, generate scholarship funds for several educational and community related services that will help aspiring students become leaders and attend a four-year college or university. AJX Foundation supports its communities by improving their lifestyles through education, leadership workshops, and economic development planning that will support the next generation. The AJX Foundation efforts support several communities throughout North Texas. For more information about the AJX Foundation, volunteer or sponsorship opportunities, visit www.ajxfoundation.org.
